About Jeff Leap

Jeff imagines a workplace where everyone engages and contributes their full intellectual capacity, a place where people are healthier and happier because they have more control over their work, and their work is more fulfilling—a place where everyone is a leader.

Before joining the Turn the Ship Around team, Jeff was a Lean/Agile Coach and Trainer at Adobe. In this role, he helped teams in every part of the company find ways to deliver more customer value with less effort through applying Lean and Agile principles to their work.

Additionally, Jeff has 27 years of experience in a wide range of roles in spacecraft mission operations, software development, project management, and process improvement using models such as the CMMI®, ISO 9001, and Malcolm Baldrige working at Lockheed Martin, General Dynamics, Compaq Computers, and Cisco.

Cost: $150 per person ($125 per person when your company registers five team members or more)
